

About

---

The Certified Procurement Professional (CPP) certification is a globally recognized credential for individuals working in procurement, supply chain management, and purchasing roles. It validates expertise in procurement processes, contract management, supplier relationships, and cost control strategies.

Objective

---

- Understand procurement basics and relationships.
- Analyze market data for effective planning.
- Select sourcing strategies for various needs.
- Implement efficient procurement systems.
- Involve procurement in specification and supplier selection.
- Manage contracts and grasp legal aspects.
- Handle electronic procurement and related legal issues.
- Monitor supplier performance, use KPIs, and improve procurement practices.

Content

---

- Focus on procurement innovation
- Negotiation, supplier evaluation
- Buyer training
- KPI development
- Market research for superior suppliers.

Prerequisite

---

- Senior buyers
- Purchasing supervisors, managers, and supply chain personnel

Exam & Certification

---

- Certification: CILT - Chartered Institute of Logistics & Transport