About

Gain essential knowledge in supply chain management, logistics, and various modes of transport. This course covers key principles and concepts in freight transport management, multimodal transport operations, cargo unitization and containerization, as well as the transportation of dangerous goods by air, land, and sea.

Objective

Upon completing this course, you will have the skills to:

- State the supply chain business process integration.
- Recognize the scope of freight forwarding services.
- Describe advantages of multi-modal transportation.
- Describe different types of transport corridors- air, road, maritime and inland waterways.
- Describe the unitization and carriage of dangerous goods.
- Describe diversity of modes and modal competition.

Content

The key topics covered during this course include:

- Introduction to supply chain management
- Freight forwarding services
- Transport management
- Multimodal transport
- Unitization of cargo and transportation of dangerous goods

Prerequisite

- Proficient in both spoken and written English; knowledge of other languages is a plus.

Exam & Certification

- Exam Method: Online exam with remote supervision by IATA
- Passing Grade: 60% correct answers

Participants who successfully pass the final exam will be awarded:

- An IATA and KHDA Certificates are awarded to participants successfully passing the final exam.